

the word 'city,' in the 3d line of same section these words 'inspectors of the.'

On motion by Mr. Long,

The letter s, was stricken from the word 'inspectors', in the 4th line same section.

On motion by Mr. Long,

The said bill was further amended by striking out the word 'fieri facias,' in the 3d line 3d section, and the word 'qui tam,' inserted in lieu thereof.

Mr. Wharton moved to amend the said bill, by adding at the end thereof, the following additional sections:

Sec. 4. And be it enacted, That from and after the passage of this act, the flour inspection district of the city of Baltimore, and the flour inspection district of the city of Frederick, as now defined, shall together constitute one inspection district for the inspection of flour, under the style and name of the Baltimore and Frederick flour inspection district.

Sec. 5. And be it enacted, That every inspector of flour appointed under this act, or the act to which this is a supplement, shall on his appointment and before he proceeds to act or continues to act as such; make oath or affirmation as the case may be, before the Mayor of Baltimore, or the Mayor of the city of Frederick, that without fear, favor or affection, malice, partiality or respect of persons, he will diligently and carefully view, examine and inspect all flour brought within the said Baltimore and Frederick flour inspection districts, which he shall be called upon to view, examine and inspect to the best of his skill, knowledge and ability, and according to the standard established for the time being, in the said district, and that no flour shall be passed or branded by him, without his viewing or examining the same; that he will not brand or cause to be branded, as merchantable, any cask or casks of flour, that do not appear to the best of his skill to be sufficiently clean, sweet and merchantable, and that he will pass and brand all such cask or casks of flour, as shall appear to him clean, sweet and merchantable, according to the standard established, to the best of his skill and knowledge and according to the rules and regulations in that behalf, existing in said election district.

Sec. 6. And be it enacted, That every cask of flour that shall be inspected in the city of Frederick, shall in addition to the brand of that which is inspected in the city of Baltimore, which shall remain the same as is now prescrib-
